APPROVED HOME HEALTH, INC. AND APPROVED HOMEMAKERS AND COMPANIONS, INC. UNDER NEW OWNERSHIP

Bradenton, FL March 12, 2004 – CJT Home Health, Inc. (CJT) today announced the acquisition of Approved Home Health, Inc. and Approved Homemakers and Companions, Inc. CJT will operate under the business name of Approved Home Health and is licensed to operate in Manatee County.

The Approved home healthcare companies have served Manatee County since 1989 and currently employ 86 people locally. The companies were founded by Cyril Dougherty who is retiring. Mr. Dougherty has been an active member in the elder care community serving as Past President Advisory Council West Central Florida Area Agency on Aging, Past President Manatee Area on Aging and Past Facilitator Florida Council on Aging.

CJT owners, Christine Caldwell and Thomas Palmer have extensive executive management, marketing and sales experience in both product- and service-oriented organizations. Just prior to forming CJT, Mr. Palmer provided computer and networking consulting and training to customers in the healthcare and nursing home industries. Ms. Caldwell most recently served as Vice President for Marketing for Versant Corporation, a computer software company, and as Vice President and General Manager for Alexander Ogilvy Public Relations, Inc., both in California.
